

IGNITE SNOW DAY PROCEDURES

Snow Days:

If Boone County Schools cancel for snow, Kenton County scholars and teachers will not report to school regardless if Kenton is open or closed. For safety reasons, if Kenton cancels for snow, and Boone does not, Kenton County scholars and teachers will not go. This scenario also applies for Walton-Verona scholars, should Walton-Verona close for snow. Boone County teachers and scholars will still report. (This is the only time Kenton County and Walton-Verona scholars and teachers will not be following Boone's calendar).

Delays: (Follow the delay for your home district. If your district does not have a delay, you will report to school and catch all busses on time.)

One Hour Delay: Busses will leave the home high schools to come to Ignite exactly one hour later than normal. Scholars driving and being dropped off to Ignite will begin classes at 9am. This means attendance will be posted at 9am. Scholars should arrive in plenty of time to get to class by 9am.

Two Hour Delay: Busses will leave the home high schools to come to Ignite exactly two hours later than normal. Scholars driving and being dropped off to Ignite will begin classes at 10am. This means attendance will be posted at 10am. Scholars should arrive in plenty of time to get to class by 10am.

Early Dismissal:

If Boone dismisses early, Kenton County scholars will go back to their home high schools for the remainder of the day.
